Gene Pitney, "Dream For Sale" Lyrics

She told me there was no one else like the rumors say
But I saw her in the show with him just the other day
How could she do it
Where did I fail

Hey hey hey hey
Anybody want a dream
I got a dream for sale

I can't keep myself from crying when I think that I
Have loved a girl who's every other word was just a lie
How could she do it
Where did I fail

Hey hey hey hey
Anybody want a dream
I got a dream for sale

A dream of love that was worth a million
Or maybe two or maybe three
But now it's not worth a dime

ON AMERICAN POPULAR MUSIC

Ah no she don't, oh no she don't love me

So I guess I'll keep on trying as I think of how
I always use to kiss those lips He's kissing now
How could she do it
Where did I fail

Hey hey hey hey
Anybody want a dream
I got a dream for sale

How could she do it
Where did I fail

Hey hey hey hey
Anybody want a dream
I got a dream for sale
Anybody want a dream
I got a dream for sale
Anybody want a dream
I got a dream for sale
