Goree Carter, "Rock A While" Lyrics

Feelin' good this mornin' now I feel like I wanna rock a while Feelin' good this mornin' now I feel like I wanna rock a while
Come on, boogie woogie baby, come and stop this steel in style

Throw away my troubles and throw away my (pills/bills)?
Gonna throw away my troubles and throw away my (pills/bills)?
Got a letter from my baby who believe is ? ? ?

Feelin' good this mornin' and it's time to go out and play
Feelin' good this mornin' and it's time to go out and play
Oh, my sweet lovin' baby's comin' home today
